

HERNANDO MUSIC WORKSHOP

Hernando Music Workshop

Hernando Music Workshop offers musical instruction and coaching, on a wide variety of stringed instruments, including piano, violin, guitar and voice.

Hernando Music workshop is dedicated to the joy and wonder of learning and playing music for children of all ages, to enhance, enrich and motivate all those who participate. Professional instruction for individuals, or group & private lessons.

Instructor

Bob Sunda is a graduate of Interlochen Arts Academy, also having studied music at Western, Michigan University, Ohio State and Capitol University in Columbus, Ohio. He has spent over 30 years touring, recording and performing all over the world with a wide variety of musicians and artists. He has performed in concert with Jazz Greats; Mose Allison, Richie Cole, Elaine Elias, Patti Braun, Charlie Byrd, Bobby Shew, and Blues Guitarist Elvin Bishop. He has, over the years recorded numerous albums with many different Jazz, Blues, Cajun and Gospel Artists including Gatemouth Brown, the late great bluesman Junior Wells and a two album project with Grammy Award winner Michael Doucet and Beausolleu for Narada records. While living and working out of New Orleans as a freelance bassist and keyboardist for nearly 15 years, he also held a variety of positions there, including Musical Director/Band Leader on the American Oveen Steamboat, and was on staff in the Entertainment Department for Harrah's for 5 years. Bob re-located to North Mississippi, after the Katrina disaster in 2006. Bob lives in Hernando, Mississippi and Bob continues his work as a free-lance musician and music educator. Bob is currently on staff as a pianist/choir director at Nesbit Presbyterian Church, and also holds a position as a professor of applied music at Rhodes College in Memphis, TN.

Lesson Information

30 Minutes or 60 Minutes
One Lesson per Week
Multi Student Discount
Accepting Students of All Levels

From beginner to professional, Bob can set up a curriculum for each individual student covering a wide variety of musical styles and content, on the piano, guitar, violin, bass and voice.

His lesson curriculum includes all aspects of playing and performance; using chord theory, music theory, scales, understanding melodies, song form and of course improvisation!!